Parsec Financial Named To Top Registered Investment Advisors List

Considered to be among the industry's elite advisers.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Asheville, N.C., June 27, 2017 - Parsec Financial, a fee-only wealth management firm, has been named to the Financial Times FT300. The FT300 represents the top registered investment advisors (RIAs) in the US.

Financial Times (FT) examined RIAs who were registered with the US Securities and Exchange Commission and reported to the SEC that they had $300m or more in assets under management (AUM). Qualifying companies were then asked to complete a lengthy application. FT utilized this information, along with their own research, and graded advisors on 6 factors: Adviser AUM, asset growth, the company's age, industry certifications of key employees, SEC compliance record, and online accessibility.

"Parsec Financial is proud to be recognized as one of the top 300 RIAs by Financial Times," said Rick Manske, CEO of Parsec Financial. "We are honored because it is a reflection of a growing client base and the hard work that we put forth to serve them."
